Local Student Wins Tour To The Big Town

Kenneth Stiles, 16, a grade XI student in the Didsbury high school, won the finals in the public speaking contest sponsored by the Independent Order of Oddfellows and Rebekahs, for zone three. This includes the territory of Calgary north, Three Hills, Acme, Swallow and Crossfield.

The award is a three weeks tour to New York and participation in the United Nations "Pilgrimage for Youth." Young people from Canada, every state and Hawaii, will be attending. The four commences in June and continues with different groups, for five weeks.

Ken was sponsored by the Sunny-side Lodge, No. 57. He is well known in that district as he has been a member of the East Didsbury 4H Club for some years, having been a former achievement winner. The elimination contest for this district was held in Acme, March 16th, when Ken was voted as the outstanding winner.

His talk was "Canada's Northland, Unlimited." Donald Huser, of Midway, who spoke on "Napoleon Bonaparte" was second. Winners from the four lodges represented were then allowed to speak in the finals. This procedure was followed so that those speaking in Beiseker were young people who had previously won in their own districts.

Judges were Mr. J. Ferguson, Trochu, lawyer; Mr. Dean Drumheller, and Mr. Bliss, Three Hills, both of whom are superintendents of schools. The second award went to Robin Panson, of Calgary, who spoke on "The United Nations 'World Health Organization', with third place going to Werthy Nelson, Calgary, for his talk on "Should Red China be Admitted to United Nations."

Ken is editor of the high school year book, and chairman of noon hour sports and a member of the basketball team.

Local Red Cross Group On The Prowl For Funds

It happens every year about this time—the Red Cross, an organization that is famous for its past performance, the organization that will be more famous in the future, are again asking for contributions to carry on and improve the services and institutions which are taken as a matter of course by most of us.

This year the objective as regards contributions has been set at $300,000 for Alberta. The local quota is set in our files at $10,000. In past performances we know that Didsbury will again be one of the top branches insofar as donations and help are concerned.

Many do not realize how fortunate we are to have those behind the scenes, who direct traffic, arrange for a multitude of meetings, blood donor clinics and those in need.

A few names we know of are, the late "Sandy" Austin, Art Reiber, Margie, (the letter-carrier) and Mrs. Wilma Snyder, who have been there that man who does most of the ground work, Mr. E. Cogswell.

We know very well that we have not even started to cover all the persons who have been instrumental in making the Didsbury Red Cross one of the more active bodies in the province.

The E. V. Church, has willingly made their facilities open to the blood donor clinics each time they have been scheduled to draw off some of our life's substance in this area. Tribute must also be given to the ladies of the different church groups and those individuals, not connected with any organized body, who in turn gave unsolicited co-operation.

FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION PROTEST GOVERNMENT BILL

The annual meeting of Didsbury Fish and Game Association will be held in the Lions hall on Wednesday, April 11 at 8 p.m.

Various sections of the proposed new laws advocated at the present sitting of the legislature will be thoroughly discussed. A telegram has been sent to the provincial government protesting the stand taken by those in charge. Similar communications have been forwarded by the majority of sportsmen's groups in the province.

Now we wait for action, one way or the other.

Water Off Again Some Suffer

Yes, it happened again last week—a break in a water main. Instead of picking on someone other area, the elements moved in and deprived the good people who live in the block between our office, of their water supply for the second time within a month. The break has been repaired. We can now all back on our heels and wait for the next one.

In the meantime we'll keep the hinges oiled on our back door.

We've fed more water to the other avenue this spring than you can imagine.

One thing about it—we're doing it!

A NOTE TO NOTICE

Those in charge are again asking anyone who uses the town water and sewer system to turn their water taps on for five minutes, starting at 12:30 on Friday.

They also have asked that the same procedure should be followed every other day at the same time.

That adds up to Friday, Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday at the same time.

WEST NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Rugby W.I. held a very successful variety concert in the Rugby hall Friday evening. The solos, monologues, plays, etc., were well received and although we don't like to single out any of those taking part, we think the singing by the Krebs twins and especially their able accompanist, Audrey Lutz were outstanding. Of course, the dancing of the talented Landeen girls was much enjoyed.

The play, "A Mock Trial," which it doesn't pay to steal a chicken, young or old, feathered or otherwise. Mr. Johnston of Hartman caused rounds of laughter as usual. The playing of the Krebs orchestra, and Mr. W. Herbert singing by Lillian, Hosgood and Betty Foss and her walking dog all were enjoyed.

WHAT ABOUT THESE CONFLICTING PRESS REPORTS AND RUMORS?

As with every other new scientific discovery, there have been many reports, from apparently reputable sources, which are conflicting. These reports make hail suppression difficult to assess, unless a thorough study is made of the project.

Unfortunately, there have been reports circulated regarding different phases of Weather Modification by those who know little of the subject. There are also rumors, on being passed from person to person, that become untrue, because of misinformation. Everyone knows that situation. Therefore, information coming only from undisputed sources should be considered.

There is actually only one such source available on the continent. That source is the U.S. Weather Control Commission set up by President Eisenhower two years ago. This group consists of unprejudiced Meteorologists, agricultural and statisticians, who were appointed to make a complete evaluation of weather modification activities for the people of the United States. It is pertinent to note that this Commission uses electronic computers, and evaluating projects which have, in some cases, operated consecutively for six years, required two years of study before making any official statements.

Since this group is qualified to make statements regarding the success or failure of weather modification operations, and since it is the only positive source available to us, we must make our decision from their recommendations.

Their recommendations most definitely point to the success of increasing rainfall and decreasing hail by cloud seeding with ground based equipment.

The local Hail Suppression Association, in dealing with W.R.D.C. Modification Corporation Ltd., who, according to Dr. B. W. Currie, "the oldest, most reliable and most experienced company in the field to-day," does not accept the results of these weather modification operations. Often the results of operations by these companies have been the basis for some of the unfavorable reports.

Those receiving the bronze medal were Eddie Brad, Colleen Cowan and Elmer Young.

The silver plated: Bruce Traub, Arlene Hooper and Sharon Hunsberger.

Another branch of the W.C.T.U. work was represented by the posters on the wall, by children, through the Scientific Temperance Instruction department of which Mrs. Lawrence Eby is superintendent.

During the several intermissions, while the judges were doing their most important work, the following were rendered:

A solo by David Archer "Bless the Temperance Cause," a violin solo by Gordon Reimer, a solo by Elaine Engle, "The Love of God," and a very good "chalk talk" by Janice Shannon from the College.

Following the supper, entertainment will be provided.

Film Council On The Move

(From Our Own Correspondent)

On Monday evening a well-attended meeting was held in the Didsbury high school to consider the re-organization of the Rosebud Film Council. Representatives were present from Midway, Mountain View hall, Mt. View church, Westcott United church, Jackson W.I., Rugby hall, Rugby W.I., Carstairs Macabees and several others as well as the Didsbury representatives.

The history of the Rosebud Film Council from its organization in 1951 and its subsequent affiliation with the Central Alberta Film Federation in 1953, was explained by E. T. Viglino, Rev. E. Fox and Mr. Graydon Arnold, National Film Board representative. It was found that the eastern half of the Didsbury area was fairly well equipped with projectors and that Didsbury and Carstairs also had sufficient equipment to make good use of the films.

In the south-west and west it was agreed that, one more machine, probably co-operatively owned, would easily look after an area stretching from Westdale on the north to south of Westcott and west to Rugby, Elktion, Fallen Timber and Bergen.

The organizations of this south and west area will hold a meeting in the near future to be convened by Mr. Jack Robertson, a student in the school. It is hoped that a decision to buy a projector will be reached. Following that meeting another meeting of the Rosebud Film Council will be held on April 23 in Didsbury School, to complete the re-organization and to make plans for the most effective use of the large stock of films available.

The silver plated: Bruce Traub, Arlene Hooper and Sharon Hunsberger.

The intermediate sterling silver was won by Lillian Stauffer.

All others received a consolation prize. It was a thrilling sight to see the winners march down the aisle and give their names. Next year we hope that most of you will receive your medals.

LIGHT YOUR WAY WITH BIBLE STUDY

The world has only one certified religion, only one religion which bears the signature of God, and that is the religion of Jesus Christ. The miracle of the first Easter is God's own signature, endorsing the truthfulness of every claim and every promise which Jesus Christ has made.

He claimed that He was the Son of God. He had claimed that He would lay down His life for the sins of man and would rise again from the dead on the third day.

Did He have the right to make these promises? Did He have the power to fulfill them? The miracle of Easter shouts a loud: "He was declared to be the Son of God... by the resurrection from the dead." Christians throughout the world rejoice in knowing that they are worshipping, not a dead prophet, but a living Christ, a Christ who is eternal in the heavens, a Christ whose Easter resurrection stands unique and unassailed as the signature of God.

With His resurrection Christ has broken the power of death: "O death where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? Thanks be to God which giveth us this victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

Because of His resurrection Christ can say to His believers: "I am the Resurrection and the Life... Whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die."

PROOF ENOUGH

There's a peculiar superstition in Egypt. They are afraid of burying people alive, so when a man dies they bury him for sixty days then dig him up, place on a cold slab, and have twenty beautiful girls dance around him for two hours.

If he doesn't get up by then, he's sure to be dead.

At the end of the fifth round the heavilyweary staggered to his corner dazed and battered. His manager whispered in his ear, "Say, slugger, I've got a great idea: Next time he hits you, hit him back!"

Ramblin' and Roamin'

LET'S TALK ABOUT —

THE NUMEROUS READERS who missed our big 'bull' on last week's front page. We'll buy a big popsicle for anyone who reports the mistake. Drop in at the office, bring your birth certificate (minors are not eligible) and point to the tainted line!

THE UNFORTUNATES in the same area who are suffering from a water main break for the second time within a month. They must suffer, along with scores of others in the province, in what has been called the most unusual winter and spring in many years. Some authorities say the worst is yet to come!

THE DOUGHHEADS (they hit this column a short time ago under the same name) still persist in using sidewalks of the town as a main highway. Could be a vigilante group will have to be formed to halt this mad practice by the ones who certainly must be suffering from a lack of something — could be brains!

THE CALGARY BULL SALE — The owner of the adjudged grand champion in the Hereford class received the red ribbon and an expense-paid trip, for he and his wife, to England. The 'champ' sold for $2,825; two bulls overlooked by the so-called judges carried a $5,000 tag when the bidding ceased. Musta' been a 'bull' on the part of officials!

THE SAME OLD BEEF — The entrance road to the main highway into town. No official word yet; the only words so far have been overheard — they came from some of the unlucky people who of necessity have to travel across "no-man's-land," following which, of necessity, they have to shake shock absorbers and tighten up body bolts on their respective vehicles. Shakes the human body a bit too!

THE TWO TEXANS who had lunch together and decided to buy a new Cadillac to drive home in. One reached for his pocket to pay for the car but was stopped by his partner with the remark: "Let me get this, you paid for the lunch." Guess they must be still embossing brands on cattle in the Lone Star State.

THE TAP RUNNING EXPERIMENT — Last week with no water on tap it was impossible to try again, but the water is running at the time of writing and it'll save us all from more inconvenience if everyone on the sewer and water line do their part come Friday. Let's have it running out — not in!

THE CLOSING OF this column for another week. From the applause seems like everyone is in agreement.

UNFAIR

The two spinsters lived together and, though neither could do anything about it, they missed having husbands. One day one of them told the other, "It says in today's paper that a woman in Omaha has just cremated her third husband." "Damn," said the second spinster. "It's unfair. Some of us can't even get one and others have husbands to burn."

"THREE GARDENS"

Someone asked Pat, what he would be if he were not Irish. Pat answered at once "I would be ashamed." I do not know that we shall feel ashamed either at being or not being Irish. I do believe we will be ashamed someday whether we want to be or not, if we do not know our garden experiences.

"The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed." The word translated garden means ground made beautiful and attractive. The word Eden refers to a section of the country side, larger than the garden. The word Eden actually means a place of delight.

The smaller part so beautiful and attractive was a portion of a delightful countryside. Yet here in the centre of beauty; here amid all the uplifting influences and well-planned surroundings the man was a failure. In the garden of Eden man failed. In similar circumstances man continues to fail. Sin is always deadly where there is beauty or where there is no beauty. Beauty alone never saves.

"By Grace are ye saved." In striking contrast the garden of Gethsemane was a small piece of barren rocky ground outside Jerusalem, just over the little stream Cedron. There may have been a few gnarled and twisted old olive trees near by. There may have been a few made of loose stones about the little patch of useless land. The only reason one can attribute to Jesus for going there, is that it was a quiet place to pray.

Here it was that Jesus met a supreme experience. Here he defeated the forces that defeated man at Eden. Here he defeated the forces that have been defeating millions of people ever since. Here He showed man how to attain to the fullness of his personality, and how to realize and enjoy life's best.

"In the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb wherein was never man yet laid." Somewhere near that skull-like hill there was a burying place. Not a clay bank but a rock with a wall-like face. In that rock a place had been hewn large enough to put one body in. This garden became the garden of life and hope eternal. "He is not here; for He has risen as He said."

Notes From D.A.

By Howard J. Fuleher

The value of forage crops in our farming program is well known. Seeded legumes and grasses provide good pasture and hay for livestock production. These forage crops also increase the fibre and fertility levels of the land.

Many times in establishing these crops the results are not as successful as could be expected. This is disappointing to the farmers both because of low levels of production and the cost of seeding. There are a number of factors which contribute to poor stands of forage crops.

Firstly you must secure good seed, which has a high level of germination. It is also important that the seed be cleaned as the crop cannot be sprayed without damaging the legumes. The legume seed should be properly inoculated with the correct dated inoculant.

Seeding methods are important, firstly the seed bed should be firm, loose soil will in many cases not give a satisfactory stand. The depth of seeding is important, although success in depth sometimes varies due to the season, a general rule is to seed shallow. This is especially true in legume and small grass seeds, they do best when surface seeded. In the case of bromes and fescue satisfactory stands will result from seeding with the grain, but avoid seeding too deep.

Do not mix inoculated legume seed with mercuric compound treated grain such as cereals and legumes as these compounds will kill the culture.

Considering the above factors and seeding the forage crops at recommended rates, reduce the rate of seeding the companion grain crop, by one-third, successful stands will be realized.

Why Endanger The Wheat Board?

To the suggestion that the best means of providing temporary assistance to prairie grain producers is to make cash advances on farm-stored grain available through the Canadian Wheat Board, the Farm and Ranch Review makes the following comments:

"If the Wheat Board undertook to carry out a plan of cash advances it would presumably have to rely on the 5,400 agents of country elevators to be 'local bankers.' Their job would be to authorize the advancing of money belonging to farmers (not the government) on a whole sale scale. Imagine the confusion and chaotic conditions which well might ensue! The ultimate result might bring the Wheat Board into such disrepute that its usefulness would be ended. We do not think the grain producers want that to happen."

"It took fifteen years of struggle for the Western farmers to get a Wheat Board. Without the Board the grain producers of the West would now be in a perilous financial position, with the world wheat carry-over at peak levels and exporting markets. This is no time to endanger the very existence of an organization which has been the only bulwark against bankruptcy available to the grain producers of Western Canada."

The Farm and Ranch Review suggests that if the system of cash advances were employed, it would be preferable to set up a separate government agency somewhat along the lines of the Commodity Credit Corporation in the United States. That government bureau works with local farm boards elected by farmers in supervising loans to farm people. Each loan is passed by a local committee and arranged through the local bank.

he would. Look see for your self, there is where they laid Him. He is not there now.

When Mrs. Emma Hermon died in 1923 she left in manuscript form a number of beautiful essays which her husband had published later in a book: "The Secret Garden of the Soul." Here she says, "every soul that is truly alive has a garden of which no other holds the key; and in hours of weariness when it is breathless with the hot race of life, and harassed by the babel of voices, it slips through the gate and walks in peace among the flowers." Jesus, because "He is risen" walks in the quiet amid both the sunshine and the shadows of life with "whosoever will" so walk with Him. In the garden life is always refreshed by the fragrant breeze that blows across the gardens of close up communion with Jesus. When one shares this fellowship of the garden, and goes out from there one always carries the fragrance out into life's fields of action. Others recognize something of the satisfaction that such lives enjoy, even in the midst of life's most trying hours. The stone from the tomb is still being rolled away. Will you look up the old hymn "In the Garden?" "And He walks with me, and He talks with me and He tells me I am His own. And the joy we share as we tarry there, none other has ever known."

Hum it to yourself! Sing it as a family! You will be glad you did.

THAT'S HER PROBLEM

A man was out Sunday driving and had his wife in the back seat. They had just pulled onto a railroad crossing when the car stalled. With the sound of a train just around the bend, his wife screamed, "Go on! Go

Her husband laughed scornfully and said, "You've been back-seat-yours."

The Easter Story

The Easter Story is over 19 centuries old and yet the message of it is as new as this morning's sunrise.
The events that transpired in Joseph's beautiful garden still bring hope, happiness and faith to millions of people the world around. The old, old story of the empty tomb is told and retold to the inspiration of Christians in all ages.

According to the gospel writers,
four women came to the sepulchre,
in the garden of Joseph of Arima-thea, to anoint the body of the Lord.
It was very early in the morning
the sun had not risen upon the most significant scene in all of history.
The women wondered who would remove the heavy stone from the entrance of the sepulchre. On arrival they saw that the stone was rolled away and there stood in their presence an angel of the Lord and his countenance was "like lightning, and his raiment white as snow." The women were frightened and could not speak. The angel said to the women, "Fear not; for I know that you seek Jesus, which was crucified.
He is not here; for He is risen!"

This message rings down through the centuries and echoes and re-echoes around the world today. "He is not here; He is risen!" It is a message of living hope and joy.
Without this star of hope to shine in our darkened world we would be a people without reason or vision.
"Weeping may endure for a night,
but joy cometh in the morning."

Robert Louis Stevenson saw deep into the meaning of religion when he gave to the world the parable of his soul's garden. He presents the picture of his going out and conversation with his gardener, and finding one plant growing everywhere throughout the garden. It flourished
there with the greatest of profusion, and he said, "What is this herb?"
"The herb of resignation," was the response.

"Out with it, man; out with it!"
was the reply of that courageous soul.
"I will have none of it any longer.
Replace it with the herb of joy, but see to it that it is the flowering sort."

The flowering sort, that is the real and inward part of life. A joy that so scatters its fragrance and its beauty that all men catch the sweetness, and that to wander in the soul's garden is a joy and a delight, not to the Master, but to all his guests.

Our Lord gave us a faith that is both victorious and a happy thing transcending all the difficulties and the vicissitudes of this world. We can do this because on that first Easter morning there was an empty tomb with its glorious message, "He is not here; He is risen!"

Have you ever travelled by train through beautiful and rugged country? The landscape on every side is gorgeously green and flooded with golden sunlight. Then suddenly it becomes dark as the blackest midnight and you can see nothing because you have entered a tunnel.
You know that the tunnel is only a thoroughfare and not a terminus, that you will soon pass through the darkness and be once again in the beautiful sunshine.

God will not leave us in the darkness of death. The empty tomb in Joseph's garden is our proof. It is this blessed Easter hope that makes all of life different. It causes men and women to love, to serve, to work for the future. It causes the light of eternity upon all our thinking and acting. It gives meaning and worth to mankind.

The Easter story with its message of joy and hope is for everyone who will take it to his heart and thus gain the faith that millions have found and have known through Jesus Christ. "He is not here; He is risen!"

condition after an accident near Madden Monday forenoon. The car driven by Mrs. Walsh turned over several times when it went off the road and slid along upside down until the top of the car was utterly demolished. It is believed that Mrs.
Walsh suffered a heart attack or a stroke causing the accident. Mr. O.

is in the Didsbury hospital suffering

Duncan Rattery, Cremona's newest

We hear Mr. Fred Rodway is suf-

he has three ribs believed

Some of the C.G.I.T. girls went

TREE PLANTING: The far-sighted individuals will be planning now for his tree planting program for next year. The merit of tree planting cannot be disputed, and since the trees are supplied by provincial nurseries free of charge and there is a municipal tree planter available, also free of charge, there doesn't seem to be any good reasons why almost everyone shouldn't consider the planting of trees.

There are a few basic requirements that can be easily met. The ground must be summer-fallowed for at least one year and be free of weeds.
Trees should be ordered one year in advance of the anticipated planting time. These new plantings must be taken care of and kept weed-free for at least three years. Don't plan to plant more trees than you are able to take care of. There is a definite pattern that experience has taught us to follow in planning the tree planting program. There is a complete list of trees and many ornamental shrubs available from government nurseries. These trees and shrubs are adapted to this climate and are winter hardy. There is also a right way to arrange the varieties in the shelterbelt for best results.
If it is a roadside planting the trees
should be kept back from the fence-line at least 75 feet.

I will be glad to discuss your particular planting program with you and make recommendations, as well as place the order for your trees.
Mr. Fulcher, District Agriculturalist,
at Olds will also be glad to give you advice on this subject and order trees for you.

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Well, the seniors got away on their "snack," but then we all knew where they went. They are a grand group and we missed them over the weekend. They deserved a "get-away" and the juniors did everything they could to give them a pleasant surprise on their return on Monday evening. As in former years, the juniors prepared a banquet, and Monday evening when the seniors returned there was much festivity going on. LaVerne Neufeld and Janice Shannon, head of the decorating committee had the dining room beautifully arranged. A beautiful picture with the motto "Torches in Thy Hand" hung across the north end of the dining room behind the pulpit. A globe, mechanically arranged, stood in front of the pulpit and under two large torches, circled continually giving the impression of time moving on as the world daily makes its circuit. The four posts in the dining room were dressed into beautiful palm trees, and the entry had a lattice work with climbing vines, at the base of which stones with the names of the seniors marked a pathway. The tables were decorated in keeping with the motto and the seniors flowers, the rose, had a large place in the scheme.

The president of the senior class, Mr. David Archer, has done a splendid piece of work in his supervisory capacity. We think he's a "natural" when it comes to that. His interest in every department of the program kept things in good order, and all the juniors worked willingly and gladly. We appreciate every one of them.

Miss Alvina Reis headed the food committee and did a splendid job with her helpers in preparing a well arranged menu for the occasion. Mrs. Oke and Mrs. Ira Stauffer were in the kitchen during the banquet helping a half dozen high school girls in their work as waitresses. Ormand Sherick, the head of the program committee, presented a splendid program for the evening. The prophecy concerning the seniors forty years hence was not the least of the items so well arranged. Rev. Smith of the First Church of the Nazarene in Calgary was the guest speaker. The banquet was formal and the girls looked their best. Altogether we wish that every one could have been present, or at least could have seen the work that was done in honor of our 12 graduates this year. They are worth it all.

A group of students went to Concord on Sunday to take the services and Sunday school in the community church there. They returned with a splendid contribution of cured ham, bacon, etc., from one of the friends there. We appreciate this greatly.

Keith Taylor was a guest in the home of Rev. and Mrs. Ray Shantz while his parents were with the seniors during the weekend. Miss Sherrill was the guest of Miss Lois Falk, R.N. in the school during the same period of time.

Mrs. Suder spoke in the Montgomery church on Sunday evening. She has covered nearly all the churches of the conference during the winter months and announces that they have come over the top in contributions for the work of the Women's Missionary Society of which she is director in this conference.

This will be a busy week. On Thursday evening Mr. Walden will have his scouts and their parents at a banquet in the College dining hall. There will be a special speaker for the evening. This has become an annual affair and the Boy Scouts of their troop look forward to it with much anticipation.

On Friday evening Miss Sharmar and Mrs. Taylor will have a private recital for their piano and organ students in the chapel.

We trust that the hall of our readers will enjoy the Easter vacation this coming weekend. May the One who rose for our justification be worshipped by all, and may all of us find ourselves in the House of God next Sunday.

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Wilfred Jackson purchased the Napier farm at Water Valley some time ago. The family now live on this farm one mile south of Water Valley.

Mr. M. J. Hewitt purchased the W Jackson house and moved it on his lot in Cremona, east of Jack Beit's.

The Cremona United Church held a congregational meeting on the evening of March 19 to discuss and decide on several issues. The first item of discussion was about changing the time of the church service. Carstairs would like a morning service once a month. Nothing definite was decided upon. Mrs. M. Earle and Mr. V. Reid were appointed as delegates to meet with Carstairs and Bancroft delegates in Carstairs to discuss the matter.

Kenneth Bird, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bird, entered the Didsbury hospital on Friday, March 24 for a tonsillectomy. The operation was postponed until Monday, March 26th, because of a heart condition.

Fritz Backstrom purchased a house from east of Westcott and moved it to his farm east of Cremona. Mr. Backstrom completed moving the house Saturday.

Wild has been received of the passing of Mrs. C. Rodgers in Calgary, Sunday, March 25. We extend the sympathy of the Cremona district to the Rodgers family. Mrs. Rodgers was well loved by all who knew her. She had a remarkable cheerfulness that warmed the hearts of all who met her.

Mr. B. B. Reid underwent an operation for perforated ulcer last week in the Didsbury hospital. He is not feeling real well according to the latest report but we're hoping he'll show rapid improvement from now on.

Erden Umhau moved the snow off the site of the proposed hotel last week. The hotel is to be erected on the lot south of D. Spillman's shop. Humphrey has it that work will commence sometime in April.

The repair crew are still at work on the A.P. elevator. Fred Rodway is able to be up and out on the slower pace despite his broken ribs. The C.G.T. girls completed their Bible study last Monday night. Mrs. M. Seib and Mrs. J. Lane were elected as members of the M.M. committee in the United Church. Mrs. McElnin is convener of the committee.

The dividends have now been posted in the accounts of the Credit Union members. All members are able to bring their pass books in to have them posted. Ronald Spafford returned home from Didsbury hospital Friday, March 18th. He was to remain in hospital until the end of the month but the hospital was just too crowded.

Some of the Cremona folk attending the ball sale in Calgary were Duncan and George McElnin, Alex Spencer and Buster Bellamy. The latest report of Dogpound Superior No. 13 is that they were down 1422 feet on Sunday, March 26th. This is a completely new rig.

Vince Brown has been to Calgary having an X-Ray from nontropath. This gentleman says Vince's trouble is an enlarged heart caused by rheumatic fever years ago.

The calf club held a literary and dance last Friday, March 23 in the Cremona hall. The evening's entertainment was to have been held in the Dogpound hall but due to the muddy road conditions it was moved to Cremona.

John Cooper won a TV set at Lions on March 15th. Chuck and Vera Halbrook won a box of biscuits the same evening.

Latest report on Mrs. D. Walsh is that she had recovered consciousness and was improving. Mr. O. Fetus was apparently more severely injured than at first supposed. He was taken to Calgary from the Didsbury hospital with a severe back condition. Local reports were that his back was broken but since he walked to the nearest farm house after the accident to secure help we doubt that his back was broken.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The significance for all mankind of Christ Jesus' victory over disease and death will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural passages regarding Jesus' crucifixion, resurrection and ascension will be among the Bible selections to be read from the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. "Unreality" is the Lesson-Sermon topic.

Readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "The resurrection of the great demonstrator of God's power was the proof of his final triumph over body and matter, and gave full evidence of divine Science, evidence so important to mortals. The belief that man has existence or mind separate from God is a divine error. This error Jesus met with divine Science and proved its nothingness." (42:15-21).

THE MINISTER IS IN THE CLEAR

A prim old lady was telling her friend about her awful shock upon finding two empty whiskey bottles in her garbage can. "You can imagine my embarrassment," she said, "I got them out fast because I didn't want the garbage man to think I drink."

"What did you do with them?" asked her friend.
"Well, the minister lives next door," was the reply, "so I put them in his garbage can; everybody knows he doesn't drink."

BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

The C.G.I.T. girls, Knox United church choir and the Ladies from the east district, held a joint miscellaneous shower for Miss Gathel Kiersgaard recently in the basement of Knox United church.

After a piano solo by Miss Jeanette McArthur, Mrs. McArthur gave a brief outline of the C.G.I.T. program depicting the mission study on the Canadian Indians with some of their cultures and beliefs.

The girls with Gathel sang a Indian Love Song, after which the guest of honor was presented, by Bernice Clarke, one feather for each good deed.

Margaret Lumb, and Faith Stevens, dressed in Indian costume and wearing false faces, made and painted by the girls, marched in and stood one on each side of Gathel, while Marilyn Platz and Joyce Timms gave, on behalf of all present, a teepee decorated by Bernice Clark with buffaloes and black horses, and laden with gifts. More gifts followed this presentation.

After the parcels had been opened and displayed Miss Kiersgaard very graciously thanked everyone for the lovely gifts and honor bestowed upon her.

Mrs. R. E. Gullie, C.G.I.T. leader, thanked all who had helped in any way to make the evening a success, also all who had helped with C.G.I.T. work during the year.

Highland Notes

(From Our Own Correspondent)

The Gamble children have finally won their bout with the chicken-pox and are looking and feeling their normal selves again.

A surprise birthday party for the school teacher was held Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Halvorson was presented with a three layer fruit cake and cake plate as a gift from the school children. A few songs were sung by the children and lunch was served bringing to a close a wonderful afternoon.

Donnie Erickson, Jackie Davidson and two Rainier boys returned Wednesday from Great Falls, Montana, where they vacationed for a few days. It seems spring break-up has come and with it we see the return of several from the district who have spent the winter away from home. Some of these are: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Louheed and family, Mr. and Mrs. Art Eggen and family, Bob and Bill Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Erickson and family.

Mrs. Dolly Stringer spent Thursday visiting with Mrs. Jennie Dick of Fallen Timber.

A few friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. Irene Halvorson, Wednesday afternoon when she was guest of honor at a birthday party. Mrs. Nell Tedford served tea and cake, assisted by the ladies.

Mrs. Eileen Scott and Vicki were Calgary visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ruth Blain visited with Mrs. Solveig Clark Wednesday.

The W.A. met at Mrs. Ferri Hau's home last week and spent the afternoon tying a quilt. The next meeting will be at Mrs. Allan Norquay's April 17.
